

VI International Symposium «The Chemistry of Diazo Compounds and Related Systems»

SEPTEMBER 6-10
SAINT PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to inform you that the VI International Symposium «The Chemistry of Diazo Compounds and Related Systems» will be held in Saint Petersburg (Russia) on 6–10 September 2021. In the past decade, over 2,000 articles have been published on the chemistry of diazo compounds and related systems. The current progress of the field will be discussed at the Symposium. This year the Symposium will be held as a satellite event of the XII International Conference on Chemistry for Young Scientists MENDELEEV 2021.

The official language of the Symposium is English.

Organizers

- St Petersburg University (SPbU)
- N.D. Zelinsky Institute of Organic Chemistry (ZIOC)
- Mendeleev Russian Chemical Society

Scientific Program

Plenary lectures (40 min), keynote lectures (30 min), invited lectures (25 min), oral presentations (15 min), and poster session.

Topics

- diazo compounds
- diazirines
- carbenes
- transition metal carbenes
- nitrenes
- diazonium salts
- diazenes
- triazenes
- heterocyclic precursors of diazo compounds, such as triazoles and thiadiazoles

Location

The Symposium will be held at the SPbU main building (Saint Petersburg, 7/9 Universitetskaya Emb.) and the Institute of Chemistry (Peterhof, 26 Universitetskii Pr.) with accommodation in nearby city hotels.

Plenary Speakers

Michael Doyle (San Antonio, USA)
 Antonio Echavarren (Tarragona, Spain)
 Stephen Hashmi (Heidelberg, Germany)
 Jianbo Wang (Beijing, China)
 Vladimir Gevorgyan (Dallas, USA)
 Valentine Nenajdenko (Moscow, Russia)
 Mikhail Egorov (Moscow, Russia)
 Vasiliy Bakulev (Ekaterinburg, Russia)

Keynote Speakers

Tom Driver (Chicago, USA)
 Avril Robertson (Brisbane, Australia)
 Dorota Gryko (Warsaw, Poland)
 Junliang Zhang (Shanghai, China)
 Alexander Khlebnikov (St Petersburg, Russia)
 Mikhail Krasavin (St Petersburg, Russia)
 Mikhail Novikov (St Petersburg, Russia)

Invited Speakers

Rene Königs (Aachen, Germany)
 Thierry Ollevier (Quebec, Canada)
 Pazhamalai Anbarasan (Madras, India)
 Anita Maguire (Cork, Ireland)
 Petr Beier (Prague, Czech Republic)
 Mikhail Nechaev (Moscow, Russia)
 Chandra Volla (Mumbai, India)
 Vladimir Dokichev (Ufa, Russia)
 Yury Tomilov (Moscow, Russia)
